

Learning Swedish:

You can find simple online language courses on the Internet

<http://www.digitalaspåret.se/safir/startside.htm>

www.personal.psu.edu/faculty/a/d/adr10/swedish.html

www2.hhs.se/isa/swedish

www.onlineswedish.com/main.php

<http://lexin.nada.kth.se/lang/bildteman/>

www.8sidor.se (a very simple Swedish newspaper with pronunciation)

<http://www.kreativpedagogik.se/engelska.htm>

Distance learning:

If you want to learn more (and better) Swedish, you can learn it by distance:

<http://www.studyinsweden.se/Learn-Swedish/Distance-learning/>

Or google for Swedish language course in your local language

Regular Classes:

For regular classes you can contact the Swedish Embassy in your own country:

<http://www.swedenabroad.com/> . Most of them have also a list with private lessons and tutoring.

Summercourses outside Sweden:

The Swedish Institute (SI) organizes summer courses abroad in Swedish as a foreign language

<http://www.si.se/English/Navigation/Learning-Swedish/Study-Swedish-in-Sweden/>

Summercourses in Sweden:

Study associations in Sweden's cities and larger towns offer language courses in Swedish. A wide range of courses is available, of varying content, length and intensity. Some institutions provide board and lodging and organize social activities, while others only offer language instruction.

<http://www.studyinsweden.se/Learn-Swedish/Study-associations-summer-courses/>

Swedish radio:

<http://sverigesradio.se/>

Swedish television:

<http://svtplay.se/>

Swedish newspapers in our region:

www.barometern.se

www.kalmarposten.se

www.ostran.se

<http://www.klt.nu/>

City of Kalmar

WWW.KALMAR.SE

More information about our region:

www.kalmar.se

<http://www.kalmar.regionforbund.se/sv/Welcome1/>

<http://www.investinkalmarcounty.se/sv/Welcome1/>

<http://www.visitsweden.com/sweden/Regions--Cities/Southern-Sweden/map/Kalmar-Castle/>