More information is coming soon!

The Childrens castle - back to the 16th century

What does the royal kitchen smell like? Will the shiny gold dress transform me into a real princess? What would it be like to touch the rough castle walls? How does it feel to wear chainmaille armour made of 40 000 little rings of steel? How heavy is a three meter long lance? Are their dungeon caverns?

It's the beginning of the 16th century. It is at this particular place and time that brave medieval knights meet fair princesses...

As you dress yourself in armour you will be stepping into another time...

For the moment you are but a menial squire, but be patient, important tasks lie ahead!

In the cobblestone courtyard and the well-preserved halls of the castle various challenges await you. You will have the chance to perform grand and heroic deeds. Just imagine being in a tournament, chasing rats in the royal kitchen, serving a meal to the Matron of the Castle or fleeing through the private toilet of Gustav Vasa!

After having successfully completed a series of challenges you will be presented with the test of honour, the famous 'sword in the stone'... Who is able to draw the sword from the stone? Only those who have shown themselves capable of great feats at the castle will master this difficult test of strength.

Finally, clad in beautiful garments, it is time for an auspicious ceremony. You will be knighted, or made duke or princess. The choice is yours!

Wellcome to the childrens Castle of Kalmar!

Hyttill- Hot shop herring

Hot shop herring is a very old tradition in the Kingdom of Crystal which goes back to the times when the glassworks was the meeting place in the village. In the evenings, the visitors are invited to enjoy traditional food prepared in the furnaces where the glass has been left over night to slowly cool down. There will also be musical entertainment and a glass blowing show on master level. Also, the visitors get a chance to try to blow glass. Today Hot Shop Herring for individual guests is served at Bergdala, Kosta, Målerås and Pukeberg on specific days during the summer. Group reservations can be made all year around. Music in the Kingdom of Crystal Music in the Kingdom of Crystal-festival takes place in scenic locations at the end of July. The festival offers a wide selection of music. Music has always had a prominent place in the Kingdom of Crystal and the area known as early as the 1800s for "Brass Belt".
